

Pathways to the Professions

Are you interested in a career in Social Work, Nursing or Teaching?

Come to an event to give people an overview and details of how to enter the professions of Social Work, Nursing and Teaching. No previous qualifications necessary.

Wednesday 24 March 2010

11.00am– 4.00pm

Birkbeck, University of London,

43 Gordon Square

London WC1H 0PD

Map available at www.bbk.ac.uk

London's evening university

0845 601 0174 www.bbk.ac.uk

Central London Open evenings: 13 May, 24 June, 2 September

Stratford Open Evenings: 22 July, 8 September

Available on the day

- Free information sessions where you will meet with experts in the field and find out about Higher Education programmes at a level that suits you.
- Access to training, work placement and job opportunity providers.
- Opportunity to speak with advisers
- Free Lunch and Refreshment

Programme of Activity

| | |
|---------------|---|
| 11am | Registration and welcome |
| 11.45am–1pm | Higher Education Introductory Studies Pathways to Nursing, Social Work and Teaching – information session. Questions and Answers with current Birkbeck students |
| 1pm–1.30pm | Lunch |
| 1.45pm–2.45pm | Join one of the following information sessions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Getting into Nursing• Getting into Social Work• Getting into Teaching |
| 2.45pm–4pm | Meet with providers offering work placements, training and job opportunities |

For more information contact Penny Collantine: p.collantine@bbk.ac.uk; 020 8432 0020
Details of other events at www.bbk.ac.uk/tryit

This event is organised by Camden Working IAG Service in partnership with Birkbeck, University of London